

in charge & I was advised that I should ship the weapon to you people at Remington in N.Y. & make it attention to Repair Dept.
I was advised that Consumer Affairs stated that it does not matter when the weapon was purchased they will repair & replace any defective parts free of charge. Due to the poor safety of this weapon, I will be eagerly awaiting the return of my weapon completely fix and ship it to my residence.
Feel free to call me at 201-942-3206.
Anthony DeTintinis
370 Chamberlain Ave
Paterson, NJ 07652

Thank you,
