Re: Order * R-88-05101; Gun purchased
by Christopher Pinsonat

Dear Sir or Madam:

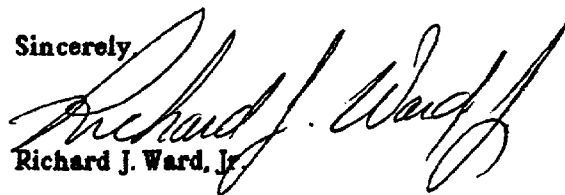

Please be advised that I have been retained by Mr. Christopher Pinsonat regarding the purchase of a 7mm Magnum in which he has had to return to your company several times for repairs. Presently, he is not in possession of said rifle and does not wish to regain possession thereof in light of the numerous problems he has had with said rifle.

Based on the history presented to me and verified by the documentation supplied, it was his understanding that after Remington Arms Company, Inc. attempted to repair it the second time unsuccessfully, they had agreed to provide him with a new rifle. Since that time, Remington has apparently refused to do so and now Mr. Pinsonat wishes to recover the purchase price of said rifle.

Please accept this as demand on your company to repay Mr. Pinsonat the sum paid for the rifle pursuant to the laws of the State of Louisiana regarding the return of the purchase price when the item purchased contains redhibitory defects.

If you feel a discussion of this matter would be helpful, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Ward, Jr.
