Dear Tanner:

Your letter concerning difficulties experienced with your Remington Model 700, caliber 22-250, serial number 6422056, has been received.

We deeply regret your having had a problem of any kind.

In order for us to determine the cause of the incident, it is necessary for the firearm to be returned for our examination. Therefore, please return the firearm via United Parcel Service, transportation C.O.D. to the following address and marked to the attention of this writer:

Remington Arms Company, Inc.
Product Service
Ilion, New York 13357

Upon receipt of the firearm, our experts will thoroughly examine it and determine the cause. If we find that our product was defective in any way, we will assume complete responsibility.

Thank you for bringing this matter to our attention and for the opportunity to be of service to you.

Sincerely,

J.A. Stekl, Supervisor
Product Service
