

DATE

SUBJECT OF EXPT.

Aug. 21, 81
Scope Mounts (Continued)

The bottom of the Scope Ring had been dulled and seemed for a slip fit over the bushings. If the individual using the rifle wished he could remove the scope by loosening the lock screws and still be able to use the iron sights without interference. Photo has the Scope mounted and locked in to position. As shown bushings can be moved for different scopes.

Lock ScrewLock
Screw
EACH SIDE of Mount

EXPERIMENTER

Fred E. Martin

DATE

8-21-81

WITNESS

C. R. Ely

DATE

8/16/82