

1/21/81
TB

M/700 Bolt Lock

A review of the design to further reduce cost has been made with Process Engineering. Process will requote on the plunger and the operating handle.

Five models have been made of the latest design and model guns have been assembled with the new fire control/bolt lock combinations. Testing will be complete in January.

Sample guns are available to view.

1-13-81

J. S. Martin