Mike,
Thank you for contacting Remington Country.
We regret that you are experiencing problems with your firearm. Based on the information you have provided, we suggest that you send your firearm to our Ilion, NY facility.

You can print the factory repair form and instructions at the following section of our site.

Or follow these guidelines if in the US:

1. Record the serial number of your firearm before sending it to us.
2. Pack your firearm for safety and to prevent further damage in shipping and handling. Preferably, ship in a firearm box, not a hardcase.
3. Remove all accessories from your firearm to prevent loss or damage. This would include scope, slings, or extra choke tubes.
4. Enclose a letter with the firearm detailing the model name or number of your firearm and serial number along with a full description of the problem. Be sure to include your full name and address (P.O. Box and Street Address), including zip code, daytime telephone number, and e-mail address.
5. Ship your firearm by either United Parcel Service (UPS) or Parcel Post (US Post Office). Remington is not responsible for damage or loss during shipment, so you may elect to purchase insurance from your carrier. Customer is responsible for shipping charges to the factory.

For U.S. repairs only, ship to:

I have a Remington 700 30 odd 6 rifle and it discharges sometimes when unloading and if you move the safe from safe to fire and visa versus. At first my safe go stuck and I had an accidental discharge of the weapon, but I have oiled it, etc. and have seen it accidentally discharge since. Sometimes the bolt does not even cock when I go through the chambering a round motion. Has this been a Remington 700 problem before? I can no longer trust Remington due to this failure. The serial number on the rifle is 6474196 and I got it from my father n law and I do not want to pass down to my son a faulty weapon or a Remington after seeing how this one is very dangerous. The rifle is in excellent condition otherwise. If this had been a problem, please recommend a part and I will even buy one straight from you the dealer. Please advise. Thanks, Mike Baker
