

XR Series Rim Fire Rifles (Cont'd.)

The Chairman asked that a paper study high spotting the scope, economics, and marketing concepts be completed and presented to the Committee at the earliest date. The study should not involve extensive model work but should be based on Research's best conception of the finished design. Sales and Production were asked to participate with estimates of volume and selling prices and high spotting the process and product costs and economics.

Meeting adjourned at 10:53 a.m.
