

November 15

There was continual telephone contact between Bridgeport and Remington's field force regarding implementation of the recall program. The Product Safety Committee met to discuss progress. It was reported that distributors, dealers and Remington's field force were being fully cooperative.

It was decided that periodic meetings of the Product Safety Committee are to be held to discuss further developments and results of continued ammunition testing.

RBS/rk

CONFIDENTIAL 83