We are sending you a Remington 700 BDL, .22-250, Serial #A6382712. This rifle goes off when you close the bolt, and when you take off safety.

Ewell Cross Gun Shop in Fort Worth, Texas, a warranty repair station for Remington, advised us to send the gun directly to you for repair. Please let us know if this is under warranty or not. If not under warranty please advise of the cost to repair so that we may let our customer know of the charges.

Thank you,
