Concern: 1007 Fired on Safe Release S fired after releasing safety

9/12/08 He bolted in a round, took off safety and it fired. He put the safety back on, closed the bolt and took the safety off and it fired again without him touching the trigger. He said his rifle has an ISS. The ISS was on red at the time. Later when he and friends were checking it, they turned ISS to white then back to red. The rifle would no longer fire on safe release after that.cm

Subject: #2683, Model 7

Dear Mr. Edgerton,

enclosure

I am sorry to learn about the unfortunate incident you experienced with the Model 870 shotgun. As we discussed, I have enclosed a prepaid UPS shipping label for you to ship the firearm back to our factory for examination. I have also included a copy of this letter to put inside the shipping container. The letter inside is important as sometimes the outside label gets damaged in transit and we want to be sure the firearm is logged in correctly. Please mark the ends of the box with "Supry". Fred Supry will be inspecting the shotgun and will contact me with the results.

I apologize for the inconvenience that this incident has caused and I hope that these actions will keep you as a loyal Remington customer.

Sincerely,

Christy Mitchell Consumer Affairs Administrator Remington Arms Company

Hi.

The gun has had only 21 rounds run thru it.

I fired a few thru it the nite before I flew out and all was well.

I never touched the colored safety device.

It was packed in a leather scabbard, and taken in the tent everynite. Hunted for 3 days with 3 in the magazine, and either opened floor plate or cycled thru action to empty everyday.

Found a sheep and got ready to shoot at it.

I did notice that it seemed alittle stiff racking one into the chamber.

I figured with the cold snow and or dirt from the trail was the reason.

With one in the chamber I put the sight on it, took the safety switch to fire.

Pulled the trigger and nothing happened.

Put it on safe, jacked out the shell and put in another.

When I got back on the sheep with the scope, I pushed the safety off and the gun fired.

Tried to reload another round, and push the safety back and forth put could not get it to recock. All this time the red was showing on the device. We tried to take the bolt apart on a rock, thus the nicks on the bottom of the bolt. The guide finally got his leatherman to fit in safety hole and rotate it to white. He does not remember which way or how far he turned it. Back at camp that night another guide with a different leatherman got it to fit the special slot and rotated it to red. Did take a small ram, but did not trust the gun. In bear country, and 6 hrs from the trailhead. It was the only long gun in camp.
