Dear Mr. Kaplan:

We are writing in reference to the article "Varmint Rifles" on page 156 of the March issue of CONSUMER REPORTS.

The functional difficulty found in your tests of the Remington Model 700 BDL has never been brought to our attention previously, and we are most interested in determining the cause.

Would it be possible, therefore, to meet with you at your convenience to examine the gun in question? If this request meets with your approval, please advise me as to place and time.

Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Cordially yours,

REMINGTON ARMS COMPANY, INC.
