REFERENCE: Model 700 with Shrouded Bolt for Australia

We would like to take this opportunity to advise you that our distributor in Australia, Boustead Wood Pty. Ltd. has advised us that we are authorized to ship Model 700's without the special shrouded bolt at the present time.

We are enclosing a copy of a letter received from our Distributor in Australia advising that the special Model 700 with the shrouded bolt has been received by them. As soon as we have received a report on the Commonwealth Police Department Safety Tests for this particular gun, we will advise you as to the results of this test.
