The goal of the Bolt Action Carbine project is to improve Remington's marketing position and increase sales by restyling the Mohawk 600 Rifle. This rifle has not had a change in the styling of the stock since it was originally introduced as the Model 600 in 1964. The barreled action had minor changes in 1968. The rifle is well liked as a brush gun because of its handling ability, short overall length, accuracy, and selection of calibers. It will be introduced to compete against carbine length rifles presently in the field.
