

Operations Committee Ilion Division

Firearms

New Product Development

Bolt Action Rifles

Five model 700 fire controls with blocked sears and blocked triggers are in the test lab for evaluation. We are assembling sample fire controls employing a new trigger design which does not require a connector to eliminate a part, insure a more positive lift, and maintain proper clearance.

Research Department
January 1982