Thanks for your email regarding Remington's Safety Modification Program for the Model 700. This program affects only pre-1982 Model 700 and we do not have a photo available.

Current Model 700 images are available on our web site at www.remington.com/artwork. If I can provide additional information, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Dear Remington:

I will be out of my office Monday-Tuesday (April 1-2) and not able to check my e-mail to see if you have been able to send me a .jpg image of the Model 700 bolt-action Remington that has had an accidental discharge problem.

Because I'm nearing a deadline, could you also send an image to the editor, Todd Masson, at Louisiana Publishing (toddm@louisianapublishing.com) so we will have an image to accompany the story?

Thanks in advance for your help.
