We apologize for any inconvenience you may be experiencing. If in the US, we recommend taking/shipping the firearm to one of the following Remington Premier Repair Centers for inspection. These repair centers can perform the bolt lock modification. If the trigger needs to be replaced it will be with the same design that is adjustable.

I have a 700 BDL [243] that has the bolt lock and I would like to have it modified. Where is the nearest Remington Gunsmith that is authorized to perform this work?

If I ship the rifle can I remove the stock, I really don't want to take a chance on damage or loss of my stock.

If the trigger is replaced will the replacement trigger be adjustable?

I live in Wheelersburg Ohio 45694, 30 miles from Ashland Kentucky, 40 miles from Huntington W VA.
