Dear Mr. Critchell,

The factory turn-around time is averaging 3 weeks. Some of the Premier Centers can turn it around in the same week.

If in the US, we recommend taking/shipping the firearm to one of the following Remington Premier Repair Centers for inspection. The repair centers will ship it back in the same case.

You do not need to call them just include a note inside with the rifle with the reason sent in and your name, address, and daytime number.

Incident created due to reply to expired incident 050914-000023.

How long do you need the gun for the Safety Modification Program?
Do I need to call first or simply send the gun to Ilion with the completed
Repair Form?
If I ship it in a plastic & foam case will it be returned in the same case?

Thank you,
Dwight Critchell
