

mount and run micro-hardness measurements to confirm Wheelabrator's readings. We will load this shot and run choke strain measurements.

2. Waiting for Frohn samples from Lonoke (Conditioned shot) to run choke strain measurements.
3. Learned that SAAMI is considering changing the hardness specification and measurement procedure for Steel Shot. Will stay abreast of this since it does have a direct effect on this program.