

I did not fire the gun again and upon returning to the States I returned the gun to you for inspection and hopefully Remington will do the right thing. As you know, African safaris are very expensive as well as time consuming. Although I shot some excellent trophies, I do believe restitution for the hunt and my time is in order. Please do what you can.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Richard Burtness', with a stylized, flowing script.

Richard Burtness

RKB/jc