 and blew a hole in the bed of her pick-up truck.

She insists she touched nothing but the forearm of the rifle and the safety with her thumb.

Since this is an unusually accurate rifle and I don't want to get rid of it, I called R. E.
 Sherman at Bridgeport, Conn., and he suggested I send it to you.

In honesty, I have to tell you I have tried repeatedly to make the gun go off under similar circumstances and it would not.

However, I have got to the
