try to go on and it joined what I pushed down on one of them and closed the hatch and put the safety on. What I did after that was work the safety on and off about twenty five times trying to make it do it again but it would not repeat.

After I got home and went to my brother in law I told him what a scare I had and the first thing he told me is that I should tell him what these things would be very concerned about it and they would want to know about these things because of the danger

The day before this happened it had rained and around where I was out there but that night when I was home thinking I thought it in the dark and I thought I would go to bed and it all done something I always
