Dear Sir:

I am writing you concerning one of your products that I purchased new August, 24, 1988. I.E. Remington XP100 pistol ser. #B7520468. This pistol is defective, and I have returned it for repairs. I can understand how these things can happen. The pistol seemed alright at first, but then started to come apart. What I take exception to is the fact that I was told that it would take six to eight weeks to repair.

As I stated in my letter with the pistol, you have my money, I do not have use of the product that I paid for. This pistol is unsafe, and unless I receive it repaired in a reasonable length of time I will file complaints with my congressman, and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Comm.

Sincerely:

Dennis E. Snyder
