Dear Mr. Vander Plaat:

Reference is made to your recent letter regarding the safety operation of your Model 700 BDL L. H. 270 Win caliber rifle.

All Model 700 rifles produced after 1981 do not have the "bolt lock" feature, i. e. - the bolts can be raised with the safety in the "on-safe" position. As you know, older Model 700 rifles do lock the bolt down when the safety is on.

The bolt-lock was eliminated based on the results of an independent survey in which a greater percentage of the shooters felt it was not a necessary feature and preferred the capability of opening the bolt with the safety on.

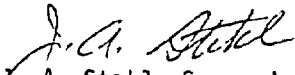

If you desire the bolt-lock feature on your rifle, we can install the necessary part at a charge of $15.00 to cover part, installation and handling. Please send the rifle via insured U.P.S. to:

Remington Arms Company, Inc.

In addition, please print "STEKL" on both butt ends of the shipping box in bold letters to expedite handling.

Thank you for your interest in Remington products and for affording us the opportunity to be of service to you.

Sincerely,
