Re:	My client:	Michael Owens
	Date of accident:	November 4, 1995
	Your firearm:	Remington 700 ADL
	Serial number:	06816552

Dear Mr. Sanita:

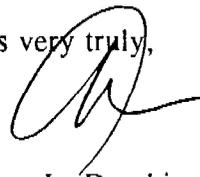

We represent Michael Owens in a claim against your company for a defective model 700 ADL rifle as referenced above.

Mr. Owens was injured when the user of the firearm encountered difficulty in closing the bolt, thereby causing an accidental discharge. Mr. Owens was severely wounded and spent more than two weeks in the hospital in recuperation.

The firearm in question was purchased from Carter's Shooting Center, Inc. at 2121 So. Shaver, Pasadena, Texas 77502 and is currently being inspected by the local law enforcement firearms laboratory to validate it's working condition.

This letter serves notice to your company, under the TEXAS DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT, that if the sum of $350,000.00 is not tendered as pre-litigation settlement of this claim within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this letter, a lawsuit will be filed against your company in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Yours very truly,

Andrew L. Drapkin
