Response (Dell -)12/29/2010 10:44 AM

We would like to have the firearm come into our Product Services Department at our factory for examination. Please reply back to me with the serial number of the firearm, caliber, your mailing address and phone number. We would like to send you a pre-paid shipping label for UPS to have the firearm come in. I will also include a form that you can fill out to let the examiner know exactly what happened, and when this occurred.

Sincerely,
Dell

Customer (James Colvin)12/18/2010 08:11 PM

Hello,

I have been a proud owner of Remington 700, 30-06, for many years. I have not hunted in a few years and have recently been asked by my son to introduce him into the sport. After having taken him to shooting range a few times to teach him about firearms and proper shooting, I felt the time was right to let him share the experience of shooting my model 700. This could have been somewhat of catastrophe. Fortunately I decided to fire the rifle a couple times before allowing my son, who is 11 years old, shoot the gun. To my surprise when I moved the lever from safe to fire the gun fired! Having said all this I would like to know if there is a recall on these rifles? or some kind of manufacturer fix for this rifle, at its current state I would never fire the rifle again or purchase another. I might could understand if this gun had been abused in some way, but I am talking about a rifle that has been very well taken care of and kept in a gun cabinet. Please let me know how I can resolve this problem.

Dear Mr. Colvin,

You will receive a shipping label for UPS by email in 2-3 business days. Please include a copy of this letter to put inside the shipping container. The letter inside is important as sometimes the outside label gets damaged in transit and we want to be sure the firearm is logged in correctly. Mark the ends of the box with "Product Service". Product Service will be inspecting the firearm and will contact me with the results.

I hope that this action will keep you a loyal Remington customer.

Sincerely,
D. Fulcher
