8/15/11 Received a call from Jacob Wagoner, attorney from Reavis, Thomas & Poole, stating that Jason Penley came to him to pursue compensation for the damage done when he shot a hole in the air compressor of his truck and damaged a pistol that was in the truck when the 700 fired on safe release. This happened last deer season. Wagoner said that Penley had retained him but Wagoner said he probably just wants the rifle repaired at no charge. We had told him he would pay to have the bolt lock removed.cm

8/15/11 I'm mailing an ARS to Wagoner to have the rifle shipped in for inspection. I told him I could not determine if there would be a charge and how much until we inspected the rifle.cm
