Enclosed is a prepaid UPS shipping label to cover shipment of your firearm to our factory for examination, a form and service request.

Please include a copy of this letter, form, and service request to put inside the shipping container. The letter, form and service request inside are important as sometimes the outside label gets damaged in transit and we want to be sure the firearm is logged in correctly. Mark the ends of the box with "Product Service". Product Service will be inspecting the firearm and will contact me with the results. I will contact you once I get the report.

I hope this action will keep you a loyal Remington customer.

RE: Ref: #6695, Model 700, Serial #G6434315

Dear Mr. Fulcher:

On October 13, 2011, my husband and I went to sight in our rifles for the upcoming hunting season. After setting up the targets, I placed my Remington, Model 700, 270 rifle on top of my rifle case which was lying in the bed of our Toyota Tundra pickup. I then put three bullets in the rifle, one in the chamber. While the rifle was still lying flat in the back of the Toyota, using my right thumb I moved the safety to the fire position and the rifle discharged. I was not holding the rifle and my finger was not near the trigger.

The bullet entered the left rear wheel well. The bullet fragmented with part of it coming out the left side of the pickup bed. Other fragments came out between the pickup bed and then entered the cab. There was also damage to the fuel filler neck and vacuum line on the emissions system. I am enclosing photos of the damage to our Toyota along with an estimate from Hank's Auto Body Shop.

My rifle has been shipped along with your letter, form, and service request to: Product Service, Arms Services, 14 Hoeft Avenue, Ilion, New York.

I expect Remington to cover the cost of the damage to our Toyota since my rifle malfunctioned.

Your immediate attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

My phone number is (406) 671-4396 or our email address is: shroom@bresnan.net.

Sincerely,

Renee McLure

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and General Release (hereinafter the "Settlement Agreement") is entered into between and among DAVID MCLURE and RENEE MCLURE (hereinafter referred to as "Releasors"), and REMINGTON ARMS COMPANY, LLC (f/k/a Remington Arms Company, Inc. and hereinafter referred to as "Releasee") (which, with the Releasors, is singularly referred to as a "Party" and collectively are referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, Releasors allege they sustained property damage to a Toyota truck resulting from a shooting incident (hereinafter the "Incident") allegedly involving a Remington Model 700 rifle (Serial No. G6434315) occurring on or about October 13, 2011, in or near Billings, Montana; and

WHEREAS, without any Party admitting any liability, fault, or responsibility for the Incident, injuries, or damages alleged by Releasors, the Parties now desire to settle all existing and potential claims and disputes between and among them.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the payments, consideration, promises, and covenants contemplated by this Settlement Agreement:

1. Releasors, for valuable consideration in the amount of Two Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Three Dollars ($2,663.00), the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, hereby fully, firmly, and forever release, acquit, and discharge Releasee, its present, past, and future shareholders, directors, officers, employees, attorneys, agents, affiliates, contractors, investigators, distributors, dealers, retailers, representatives, successors, privies, predecessors, parent corporations, subsidiary corporations, assigns, and any others acting on their behalves, and any and all other persons and entities, including but not limited to, Sporting Goods Properties, Inc., E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, and Freedom Group, Inc., from any and all claims, damages, petitions, complaints, counterclaims, crossclaims, third-party complaints, loss of consortium claims, loss of society claims, actions, torts, contracts, causes of action, interest, rights or obligations, and/or liens of health care providers, insurers, and attorneys, whether known or unknown, whether contingent or unliquidated, past, present, and future, whether by apportionment of fault or otherwise, of every kind, nature, or description which Releasors now have or may have or could have had arising from or in any way related to the Incident against any person, entity, or actual or potential party whatsoever. The parties agree that payment of the aforementioned sum of $2,663.00 will be made by delivery to Releasors of a check from Releasee in said amount made payable to Hank's Body Shop, Inc.

2. Releasors agree that this Settlement Agreement shall constitute a full and final release of all rights and matters, including all claims which were asserted or could have been asserted in any legal action, and all known and unknown injuries, losses, damages, claims, complaints, pre-existing conditions, and/or past, present, and future aggravations of existing injuries and/or future medical expenses, arising, however remotely, out of or in connection with the Incident.

3. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of the Settlement Agreement, and its terms are contractual and not merely a recital. This Settlement Agreement is legally enforceable and binding. Releasors acknowledge that no Party has made any representation, agreement, or promise to do or refraining from doing any act or thing not specifically set forth in this Settlement Agreement. This Settlement Agreement may not be changed, modified, waived, discharged, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the Party against whom enforcement of the change, modification, waiver, discharge, or termination is sought.

4. This Settlement Agreement and General Release is granted in good faith, and in making this determination and in accepting any consideration in the above amount in settlement, Releasors have considered the nature and extent of all relevant injuries and damages, the alleged liability of Releasee, and the expense and delay of proceedings in any legal action. Releasors agree that the consideration for this Settlement Agreement and General Release is bargained for and exchanged in compromise and satisfaction of any and all claims against Releasee and that no other promises, agreements, or commitments have been made to Releasors as an inducement to execute this Settlement Agreement.

5. Releasors further declare and represent that they understand that in executing this Settlement Agreement, they compromise all of their claims against Releasee; that any legal action would have involved sharply contested issues of fact and law; that the resolution of these issues and the ultimate outcome of any litigation after appeals, if any, cannot be predicted with certainty; that the consideration received for this Settlement Agreement is substantial; and that this consideration could be higher or lower than what might be received were Releasors to pursue any legal action to conclusion in the courts. In making this Settlement Agreement, Releasors rely wholly upon their own judgment, belief, and knowledge regarding the nature, extent, effect, and duration of said injuries, damages, and liability. This Settlement Agreement is made without reliance upon any statement or representation by the Releasee or its representatives or attorneys, the making of any such statements or representations being specifically denied, and Releasors specifically acknowledge that no pressure has been exerted on them and no inducements (other than the considerations recited herein) have been made to them by or on behalf of Releasee to execute this Settlement Agreement.

6. Releasors hereby agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Releasee, including, but not limited to, Releasee's shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates, attorneys, employees, investigators, insurers, parent corporations, subsidiary corporations, distributors, dealers, retailers, representatives, predecessors, successors, heirs, assigns, and any others acting on their behalf, or on behalf of each of them, from any and all claims, bills, or medical expenses, doctors' bills, hospital bills, automobile repair bills, health care insurer or provider liens, and/or expenses incurred by them, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, as a result of the assertion of any claim, action, cause of action, right, or obligation which is released and discharged by this Settlement Agreement or which is in any way related to the Incident.

7. All Parties shall bear their own respective costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees incurred in connection with this matter.

8. This Settlement Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Montana.

9. Releasors acknowledge that this Settlement Agreement shall not be deemed to constitute an admission of any past, present, or future liability or wrongdoing by any Party, all of which have been expressly denied.

10. In executing this Settlement Agreement, Releasors acknowledge that they have read this entire document, that they have had the opportunity to consult an attorney regarding it, and that they fully understand the terms contained in it and the impact of signing same, and signs the same of their own free will. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding on Releasors' heirs, successors, personal representatives, and assigns.

11. Releasors represent and agree that no civil actions, complaints, lawsuits, or petitions are pending or will be filed, arising out of or in any way related to the Incident. Releasors will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Releasee from any breach of this representation.

12. Releasors represent that all liens, charges, subrogation interests, or other such claims or liabilities arising out of the Incident, including, but not limited to, any worker's compensation lien, any statutorily created lien, any automobile repair charges or liens, and those of any hospital, health insurer, automobile insurer, or provider, attorney, or any other person or entity, have been paid or will be paid by or on behalf of Releasors. Releasors will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Releasee from any breach of this representation.

13. Releasors represent that they are the sole owners of all of their respective claims, causes of action, and rights arising from the Incident and released in this Settlement Agreement, that they have not assigned any interest in such claims, causes, and rights, and that they possess full and lawful authority to execute this Settlement Agreement and to fully, effectively, and completely release and extinguish all claims alleged or that could be alleged in any action against any person or potential party whatsoever or that arise in any way out of the Incident, and that they in fact do so by virtue of this Settlement Agreement. Releasors agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Releasee from and with respect to absolutely any and all claims or demands, by whoever made at any time, against it in any way related to the Incident by anyone claiming by, through or under Releasors.

14. The Parties further agree that if, after the date hereof, any provision of this Settlement Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the terms of this Settlement Agreement, such provision shall be fully severable.

In lieu thereof, there shall be added a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, David McLure and Renee McLure have affixed their signatures as their own free acts and deeds as set forth below.
