SPECIAL BARREL REMINGTON MODEL 722 of not available
CALIBER 222, PART NO. 24561

Gentlemen:

In accordance with your letter of November 3, 1961, we are entering your purchase order No. EOD 0230 for one Remington Model 722 Barrel in Caliber 222 (our Part No. 24561). This Barrel will be withdrawn from our next production run of this item prior to rifling. It is to have smooth bore, be unchambered, unblued, and with no external cuts.

Current price for a special Barrel of this type is $10.00 each net F.O.B. our factory, Ilion, New York. Transportation charges will be prepaid and added as a separate item in our invoice.

Unfortunately we have no Barrels of this type in production at the present. Our next run is scheduled in approximately six weeks, and as soon as Barrels reach this stage of manufacture, we will withdraw one from the line, and make shipment to you.

Yours very truly,
