

Mr. Walter J. Ford, Director
Editorial, Circulation Division
National Rifle Association of America
1000 Rhode Island Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

Sept. 23, 1973

Dear Mr. Ford:

The receipt of your letter regarding the M-16 rifle is most appreciated. I am sure that you are aware of the fact that the M-16 rifle is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population.

The M-16 rifle is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population.

The M-16 rifle is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population.

The M-16 rifle is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population. It is a very reliable and accurate rifle. It is a very popular rifle among the military and the civilian population.

September 25, 1965

On January 11, 1964, the day after the death of Martin Luther King, Jr., the following letter was received from the American Friends Service Committee, 1700 Broadway, New York, New York 10019:

The above information was obtained from the records of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C., and is being furnished to you for your information.

Copyright © 2004 by John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

2000