

Remington Confidential

be used to perform this test by mounting the M/710 bolt / firing pin / firecontrol assembly and cycling to a 5000 cycle level. Bolt galling and other M/710 common part failures will not be judged relative to this test.

Of particular interest in this test will be the effects of wear on the plastic components in the receiver and firecontrol.