

The bolt lock is attached to the opposite end of the safety pin and operates the same as the Browning's by engaging a recess in the bottom of the bolt handle. (Photo #11)

This picture also shows the one gas vent hole described earlier in the Barrel/Receiver section.