I have enclosed with this letter my Remington Model 700 bolt action.

The reason I am sending this rifle to you is that it has gone off as I pushed the safety forward when it was loaded. This does not happen all the time, but has occurred 3 times. The last time this happened, the force of the gun, when it kicked back, caused the skin between my thumb and finger to split.

From my recent phone conversation with your service personnel, they indicated that I should forward the rifle to you and that it would be corrected at no charge to me.

Should you need further information or have any questions, please contact me.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Martin L. Theilman
