

trigger problem

Discussion Thread

Response (Elijah) 11/11/2008 5:58:12 AM

Dear Rodney,

Thank you for contacting Remington Country,

To answer your question, no it is not a common problem, if you would like you can take it to any Gander Mtn. store or send it to us at the following address:

Remington Arms

Attn: Arms Service

14 Hoefler Ave.

Ilion, NY 13357

Just enclose a letter with the problems you are having and a return address and they can quote and repair the rifle for you.

Thank you

Customer (rodney stayton) 11/2/2008 5:03:48 PM

i own a modle 700 muzzle loader and the trigger has broken on me for the second time. is this a common problem. the first time it broke the gun went off when i turned the safety off