Remington® Model 700™ Police Now Available in Urban Sniper Rifle Tactical Weapon Package

Madison, NC – New for 2006, the Model 700 Police in .308 Win and .300 Rem SAUM chamberings is available in an Urban Sniper Rifle (USR) Tactical Weapon System (TWS) package. Based on the highly portable Model 700 LTR (Light Tactical Rifle), which was introduced in 1998, the Model 700 USR is designed for versatility of adjustment and application with its compact 20-inch fluted barrel and H-S Precision tactical stock. As with all members of the Model 700 family of law enforcement bolt action rifles, this lightweight version features the time-proven, solid Model 700 action with the legendary “three rings of steel” design and exceptional out-of-the-box accuracy.

The Model 700 USR Tactical Weapon System features include H-S Precision aramid fiber stock with detachable 10-round box magazine; Badger Ordnance steel high rings; three-piece Picatinny-style Modular Accessory Rail System (MARS); Leupold® Mark 4® 3.5x10x40mm M3 Tactical Scope with Tactical Milling Reticle (TMR); Butler Creek® Flip-Open™ lens covers; Harris Bipod Model LM; and OPS INC 12th Model muzzle break and sound suppressor. The Model 700 USR TWS comes packed in a durable Hardigg® hard shell black case.

Remington's complete line of Military and Law Enforcement products are designed for reliability and accuracy for those critical situations when you cannot afford anything less.
