

LIMITED DISTRIBUTION

EXHIBIT 4

SCHEDULED EVENTS AND DEVELOPMENTS OF CENTER FIRE AUTOLOADING & PUMP RIFLES REMINGTON ARMS SINCE WORLD WAR II

Date	Model	Caliber	Development time expended	Cost	Result
?	740	300 Savage to 300 H & H Mag.	?	$300,000	Discontinued - malfunction rate high. Aluminum receiver - receiver too large Magnum not needed.
1947 1953	742	308 - 30'06	7 years	$735,200	Pump produced in 1952. Autoloader produced in 1953. Malfunction rate 2% - 3%
1958 1964	XC-6,7,8	308 - 30'06	4 years	$350,000	Discontinued - feeding problems. Appearance & weight objectionable. Marketing indicated no need for replacement of 742 at that time.
1969 1970	Improved 742 (744 - 766)	308 - 7mm Mag.	2 years	$153,184	Feeding malfunctions excessive -- missed announcement 1971, 1972. Discontinued in view of new family development with autoloading rifle scheduled for 1974.
Sept. 1970	742X ) 1100X )	New Family 308 - W. Mag.	Initiated Sept., 1970. Proposed announcement Jan., 1974 Jan., 1971 request for additional design help denied.		Research announcement date rescheduled for 1975.

W.E. Leek:sp
Illon Research Division
11-8-71

EXHIBIT 4

WIL02191