

parts standardization and proven performance - to other clubs on performance. Tests to date show that the M4100s to be superior to the Western traps in target breakage, consistency of flight and maintenance of the target feed system. The superiority of the M4100S design is indicated by the fact that it can be used for International Skeet while the Western Traps are regarded as inadequate for throwing 80 yard targets.

CONFIDENTIAL 83