

the firearm either permanently or with a removable decal and incorporating a statement in regular advertising advising the shooter to read the firearm owners manual. Discussion will continue at the next meeting to be held in September.

SAAMI - NSSF Safety Advertising

At a meeting between Remington and NSSF it was agreed that the 4 safety warnings discussed at this Subcommittee's last meeting, would be incorporated in the original 10. See 83 Exhibit A.

These will be reviewed when received.
