Dear Mr. Edwards:

We were sorry to learn from your letter of November 26th, the difficulties you are experiencing with your Remington Model 760 rifle.

Under the circumstances, due to the nature of your complaint, may we suggest your rifle be returned direct to the Arms Service Division, Ilion, N. Y., for our examination and correction.

When effecting its return, please tag with your name, address, and refer to this letter for identification.

Cordially,

Very truly,
Sincerely,

Arms Service Division
