considered damage done to it and I am charging $8.00 for cleaning and I believe I did not receive the machine in the same condition it was in when it was returned to me without the side hood and a scratched and marred belt I expressed in my first letter I held Remington responsible for the service I have received. I have contacted the Better Business Bureau and advised them of my problem. Another one willing to help me if cooperation is met. I am a 19 year old boy I will be purchasing other firearms in the future but in order for Remington to remain a good company in my eyes I expect cooperation. That means I expect either a full refund or an entirely new rifle. Thank you for your help in this matter.
