Dear Mr. Green,

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as an owner of several Remington rifles and shotguns, an avid hunter and a person who takes his time in the field or woods very seriously.

In January of 92 I had the opportunity to purchase another Remington firearm, Model 700LH, 338 WIN Mag, Serial Number C6601434 (firearm currently in my possession) and it is very disappointing for me to realize that the quality of Remington firearms has dropped to all time low. In order to put my concern in proper perspective I would like to call attention to the following events and details:

1. Purchased rifle from Franklin Sports, Inc. in Athens Georgia. Ammunition purchased was Remington Safari Grade.
2. Sited in first rifle and encountered problem with removing spent cartridge from chamber due to a metal burr in the chamber. Rifle was returned and exchanged for the one indicated above.
3. New rifle was sited in and found to not hold a tight shot group after the third shot. This was due to improper finishing of the stock after the front swivel was installed at the factory.
4. On November 7, 1992 I had my first opportunity to take my 338 WIN Mag to the field. With rifle in hand I had an opportunity to harvest a Trophy 8 Point Whitetail but due to a misfire, the opportunity was lost. The firearm was returned to Franklin's for repair of items 3 and 4. Repairs made by Franklin's were (1) replacement of Firing Pin Assembly (2) replacement of Trigger Assembly and (3) Glass bedding of stock.
5. On November 27 I picked up repaired rifle from Franklin's and had another opportunity to harvest another whitetail on November 28 and now realized that the magazine was
