

in the Springfield Mo. paper concerning a Law-Suit. I'm enclosing a copy of this article for you to read and help you understand why I'm very concerned since I have experienced a very similar thing with my rifle.

I'm so concerned that I no longer want to own the rifle and am requesting that you take the gun back and refund the purchase price of $325.00 to me. I don't want to get involved in any legal action to accomplish this.

After reading red lettered warning paragraphs in the Instruction booklet on page 13 on how to assemble after cleaning. This paragraph tells the owner
