Customer letter to

MARCH 6, 1957

Mr. LARRY REED

P.O. Box 549

ALVE, OREGON 97117

Dear Mr. Reed:

Reference is made to your letter of February 22, 1957, regarding the difficulties you have encountered with your Remington Models 700 and 722 rifles.

We were indeed sorry to learn of your having problems of any kind with our products.

Please, at your convenience, return the rifles, via U.S. transportation C.O.D. to:

Remington Arms Company, Inc.
Arms Service Division
Hartford, New York 13557

Upon receipt, we will have our technicians thoroughly examine the rifles and, if they are found to be factory faulty, any necessary correction will be made on a no-charge basis.

Thank you for bringing these matters to our attention, Mr. Reed, and for having afforded us this opportunity to be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

J. A. Stodd
