Dear Mr. Varnum:

Your letter of recent date in regards to your Remington Model 700, which is addressed to our Bridgeport, Conn. office, has been forwarded to this office for reply.

We are sorry to learn from your letter that difficulties were experienced.

Under the circumstances, may we suggest you return the rifle direct to the Arms Service Division, here at Eliot, N.Y.

Upon completion of our examination, you will be further advised of its disposition.

When effecting its return, please tag with your name, address and refer to this letter for identification.

Cordially,

F. D. Coler

Arms Service Division
