Attached are information copies of two news releases which were sent out today. The first, which deals with the recall of Model 600, 660 and Mohawk 600 rifles and XP-100 pistols, was sent to outdoor writers and the wire services. The second, which is concerned with a product liability case which was settled for $6.8 million, was sent to financial editors.

It is suggested that you use this information to answer inquiries concerning these matters.
