

The ejector is a spring loaded pin type, similar to that found on the Remington Centerfire Rifles, and is recessed in the bolt face. The extractor is a claw type and is spring actuated. It moves in a slot cut in the bolt shroud and through one of the locking lugs.

(See Photo #6)

