

CONFIDENTIAL

D

REMINGTON ARMS COMPANY, INC.

cc: W.L. Toner
File

INTERDEPARTMENTAL CORRESPONDENCE

Remington
SHEPPETER
SHEP

"CONFINE YOUR LETTER TO ONE SUBJECT ONLY" _____

July 15, 1985

Responsibility: F.E. Martin

Program: NBAR Fire Control Housing and Safety

Objective: To provide a positively detented trigger block, sear block safety in a cutaway housing to be used in the new bolt action rifle.

Goals:

- o positively detented
- o on-off forces equivalent to M/700
- o trigger block, sear block
- o skeletonized housing
- o manufacturing cost slightly higher than M/700

Stakes:

- o Enhanced firearm safety

Status: The design of the long action right magnum is complete. At present the Model Shop is fabricating components. CONFIDENTIAL by Stipulation and order entered in Kinzer v. Remington Arms, Inc., Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Westchester, Index No. 9344/95Program/ Timing:

- o Check CV drawings
- o Fabricate components in Model Shop
- o Assembly
- o Developmental test
- o Redesign
- o Mark up left hand, magnum, short action prints
- o Fabricate
- o Design acceptance test

RSM:sps

RSH

11 of 12