

Push Feed vs. Controlled Round Feed
“The Myth Exposed”

- Controlled Round Feed is more positive in perception only.
- The claw extractor in controlled round feed actions generally will not override the cartridge head, therefore rounds must be inserted in the magazine.
- Push feed actions are stronger providing better cartridge alignment and support for a more accurate system.