

</tr>
<tr>
 |Butt plate:</td>
 |Aluminum assembly is adjustable through a range of 2.7"</td>
 </tr>
<tr>
 |Cartridge:</td>
 |7.62 NATO M118
Special Ball, match-grade ammunition with 173-grain boat-tail bullet.</td>
 </tr>
<tr>
 |Contract:</td>
 |The initial U.S.
Government contract was #DAAW21-87-C-0086.
Initially each system sold for $4,995, and later this was reduced to $3,980 each, complete.</td>
 </tr>
<tr>
 |Designer /
inventor:</td>
 |Principle designer
assigned to the GWS project was F.E. Martin. T.C.
Douglas was assigned as project superintendent.
Program at Remington began with one full-time employee assigned; and finished with 14.</td>
 </tr>
<tr>
 |Finish:</td>
 |A Rem-Tuff
powder-coat (matte-black finish) applied to all external metal parts to reduce light reflection</td>
 </tr>
<tr>
 |Front sight:</td>
 |Detachable Redfield
Olympic big bore open front sight</td>
 </tr>
<tr>
 |Introduced:</td>
 |The first 100