Dear Mr. Muckey,

Thank you for your inquiry. According to the information provided, this firearm was manufactured in or around 1975. Our records only show date of manufacture, not the specifics about each model. We do have a voluntary Safety Modification Program for certain model bolt action rifles. You can find more information regarding this program on the front page of our website or through the link below:

I was wondering what year the gun listed above was made. Also any other interesting information about this model would be appreciated.

Many thanks for your time.
