

Keeping the safety on while chambering a bullet.

Discussion Thread

Response (Jessica)
Dear Michael,

11/21/2003 8:27:57 AM

Thank you for your inquiry. We are currently offering a program to modify the old style safety systems. Please click on the link below for information on this program:

http://www.remington.com/Safety\_Modification\_Program/remington\_safety.htm

Customer (Michael McCall, Sr.)

11/17/2003 11:04:06 PM

I have a model 700 BDL that was bought for me in the early 1980's. I have to place the safety in the fire position in order to chamber a bullet. Is there anything that I could do, or have done, to change this. My son is shooting a ruger .243 that does allow the safety to stay on while loading. Thank you for your help and great products.